Presentation by Planning & Community Services Director John Signo

Public Comment: Dawn Harris and Devon Kincaid of Republic Services

Mayor Pro Tem Mirsch conducted a discussion with Republic Services representatives specific to service issues and complaints over the past five months as well as a desire to have a rotational system put in place for the mother truck staging locations throughout the city.

Republic representatives explained issues they were experiencing including staff call-outs, and presented some corrective actions they are working towards solving staffing issues. They took notes and expressed intentions to correct issues and look into potential changes.

No formal action was taken by the Committee due to Mayor Wilson's absence.
